GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Booking confirmation

Any booking made or service purchased implies full and unconditional acceptance of the general terms and conditions of sale outlined here.

The 'group' booking service is only available to groups of 20 people or more.

Bookings are only considered firm once we have sent the customer a booking confirmation.

Bookings are only confirmed once the customer has returned their quote/invoice signed, with the words "Signed and approved".

An initial upfront payment of 30% of the amount quoted is required as a deposit.

2. Pricing

The prices listed here are subject to change without notice. The prices confirmed on the quote/invoice remain applicable for the current calendar year.

After this time, they are likely to change based on economic conditions; the applicable rates will then be those in effect on the day the service is provided.

3. Booking guarantee

The exact number of people must be confirmed no later than 7 days before the date of the visit.

This number serves as the basis for invoicing.

The abbey's management reserves the right to cancel or modify the service should fortuitous or force majeure events compel them to do so (e.g.: strike, fire, water damage, storm, flooding, etc.).

4. Cancellations

Deposits will not be reimbursed for cancellations occurring within 30 days of a booked event.

For cancellations occurring 24 hours to 8 days prior to the participants' date of arrival, 50% of the total price of the booked and cancelled services will be invoiced and deemed payable.

In the event of no-shows or of cancellations within 24 hours of the participants' date of arrival, the full price of the booked and cancelled services will be invoiced by Fontfroide Abbey and deemed payable.

5. Billing of extras

Any extras (drinks not included in the package, miscellaneous purchases...) must be paid for by participants or their group leader before leaving the abbey. Should participants leave without paying for these extras on the day, the latter will be invoiced directly to the customer/agency, deemed jointly and severally liable for their payment.

6. Complimentary meals and services

The following will be offered with the compliments of the house:

- one free meal for 25 paid meals (driver and/or guide's meal included),
- one free visit for 20 paid visits (excluding guide and/or driver),
- one free tasting for the group chaperone.

7. "Group menu" packages

The menu chosen from among the "group menu" options when booking must be identical for the whole group unless specific dietary restrictions need to be accommodated, in which case the customer agrees to notify the restaurant at least 7 days before their visit to ensure appropriate meals are available. After this time, any changes will be invoiced at €2.00 (incl. VAT) per modification.

The restaurant may also offer the customer other menu options, different to those listed in the "group menus" section.

Any changes to the services must be requested by the customer at least 72 hours in advance.

Toute demande de modifications éventuelles des prestations doit être communiquée par le client au moins 72 heures à l'avance.

8. Organisation/Seating plans

To guarantee the best possible service, customers must adhere to the arrival times mentioned on the final booking confirmation and inform the abbey of any delays by calling the service desk on 04 68 45 11 08 or the restaurant on 04 68 41 02 26.

Fontfroide Abbey may refuse groups that arrive excessively late without providing fair notice.

The service provider will not be held responsible for any wait due to an unexpected rush of customers.

Drivers, chaperones, guides, etc... are seated at the same table as the group, unless other specific instructions are given.

Seating arrangements are decided according to availability in the restaurant and cannot be changed by the customer upon arrival at the venue.

If necessary, large groups may be separated into several smaller groups for the visit or the tasting.

9. Payment terms

The customer chooses their payment terms at the time of booking (payment on the day or deferred). However, the service provider reserves the right, after notifying the customer, to propose different payment terms if amounts due for earlier bookings are still outstanding or if the service is disrupted or unavailable due to circumstances outside of their control.

In the case of deferred payments, the corresponding invoice is sent to the customer at the billing address provided at the time of booking.

The customer must settle the invoice upon receipt or, in any event, no more than 30 days later.

The customer may choose one of the following payment options:

- cheque made out to Abbaye de Fontfroide,
- bank transfer,
- bank card,
- cash.

If paying in advance, the deposit is waived. Any late payment shall rightfully, after a formal demand letter sent by registered mail with confirmation of receipt has gone unheeded for 15 days following receipt, lead to the application of late payment penalties of ten times the prevailing base legal interest rate, applied to all amounts overdue and calculated from the day after the due date until the amount is settled in full.

The service provider reserves the right to claim damages and interest for any prejudice caused by the customer's late payment.

The customer may also pay for their service directly at the cash desk in the shop, the cellar or the restaurant. In addition, the customer must pay for any extras not included when the booking was confirmed (extra drinks, food, people...), at the cash desk on the day of the visit. There will be no refunds if the meal taken on the day of the visit costs less than the menu that was booked in advance.
